FISHING LESSON

PUBLIC ART SCULPTURE
IN CITY PARK

BUILD COMMUNITY...

*Bring Public Art to the Most Beautiful City Park in America!
Become Part of this Special Project!*

The City of Hagerstown is partnering with the Maryland State Arts Council, Washington County Arts Council, Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, the Valley Art Association and the Barbara Ingram School for the Arts to bring public sculpture to our community. Local sculptor, Paul Rhymer, has been hired to create a bronze sculpture for placement in the lake at Hagerstown's City Park. The sculpture will be life size and be located just off shore in the lake to ensure maximum visibility from the lake walkway system. The sculpture is called "The Fishing Lesson."

City Park is iconic for parents taking their children to feed the fish. The sculpture not only mirrors the teaching relationship of parent and child, but also subtly educates about the chain of life and the importance of teaching self-sufficiency.

Although a number of groups have pledged to this project, additional funding will be necessary to ensure that the project becomes a reality. Please consider making a donation today.

One Maryland One Book

The Maryland Humanities Council--One Maryland/One Book encourages Marylanders from across the state to read and discuss one common book to reconnect with literature and their communities. The 2014 One Maryland/One Book is "The Distance Between Us: A Memoir" by Reyna Grande. A timely topic, this book is a poignant memoir of life before and after entering the US from Mexico as an undocumented immigrant. Get a head start by reading this excellent account from the view of the child.

In its seventh year, One Maryland/One Book is designed to bring together diverse people in communities across the state through the shared experience of reading the same book. Readers are then invited to participate in book-centered discussions and other associated programs at public libraries, high schools, colleges and universities, museums, bookstores, and community and senior centers. Programs will take place each year in the fall. Watch for announcements from the Washington County Free Library.
