Swan Lake

at The Maryland Theatre

Sunday, May 17, 2015 * 3:00pm

The City Ballet School and the Western Maryland City Ballet Company bring you the spellbinding tale of a young girl held captive as a swan. Is Siegfried's love strong enough to save her from Von Rothbart's dark magic?

Swan Lake is a gripping romance of enchantment, deceit, and love's triumph over evil. Set to Tchaikovsky's brilliant score, Artistic Director Danielle Horochowski and Ballet Mistress Amy Wroblewski bring fresh scenes to classic choreography. Complete with stunning costume design, theatrical magic and a cast of 70 dancers, this ballet makes the perfect gift for your whole family to enjoy!

The Washington County Public Schools will present the first annual Faculty Arts Showcase on Sunday, May 17, 2015 at Williamsport High School. The faculty art show will begin at 3:00 p.m. in the auditorium lobby and a concert featuring a faculty string ensemble and a faculty concert band will follow at 4:00 in the auditorium. The art show, organized by Lily Clay, Art Curriculum Specialist for WCPS, will feature over 20 works by county art teachers. The string ensemble will be led by Kathy Shrader, orchestra director at North Hagerstown High School. The 45 member concert band is under the direction of Dr. Stephen Miles, Supervisor of Visual and Performing Arts. Both musical ensembles include current, former and prospective music educators from the area as well as talented community musicians and members of the WCPS educational community.

A $5 donation will be collected at the door and will go toward the establishment of a scholarship fund to support graduating WCPS students pursuing higher education in the arts.

The poster features a light blue background. At the top, there is a black treble clef and a series of musical notes (quarter, eighth, and half notes) on a five-line staff. Below the staff, the text reads: "Please join us for the first annual FACULTY ARTS SHOWCASE". The word "FACULTY" is in a larger, bold, black font than "ARTS SHOWCASE". The date and time are listed as "Sunday, May 17, 2015" and "3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.". Further down, it says "Art Exhibit opens at 3:00 p.m." and "Performances begin at 4:00 p.m.", followed by "Chamber Orchestra" and "Concert Band". The location is "Williamsport High School". At the bottom of the text area, it states "Tickets are available in advance or at the door" and "$5.00 suggested donation". A final line of text says "Money raised will go toward the Fine Arts Scholarship Fund which will benefit WCPS students pursuing higher education in a fine arts discipline". The bottom of the poster is decorated with colorful splashes of paint in red, green, and blue.

MAY 30, 2015 MARYLAND HOUSE AND GARDEN PILGRIMAGE WASHINGTON COUNTY

The Hagerstown Garden Club tour will begin at beautiful Rose Hill Manor with its elegant matching fanlights and antique furnishings in Williamsport, and moves on to the lovely and recently restored (and never before seen) Valentia Plantation. Then on to Doub's Mill in Beaver Creek, which has new owners, who are doing wonderful things. Sycamore Springs Farm, also in Beaver Creek, offers a stone farmhouse with a large garden and lunch from a gourmet lunch truck (Please see mhgp.org for reservation information). The tour then continues to Oxbow Bend Farm in Chewsville, a charming property, with Scottish Highland cattle to greet you at the fence. Then up Little Antietam to Good Hartle Farm we find a lovely farm with a stone and log home on Antietam Creek. The Hagerstown tour ends at Old Forge Farm, the oldest dated home in Washington County. The home's gardens are filled with heirloom flowers and espaliered fruit trees. Peacocks and guinea hens may be seen wandering throughout the property.

Potomac Playmakers

present Neil Simon's "The Dinner Party!" Here is a decidedly French dinner party served up in a chaotic mode that only a master of comedy could create.

Five people are invited to dine at a first rate restaurant in Paris. They do not know who the other guests will be or why they have been invited. Tossed together in a private dining room, they have a sneaking suspicion that this unorthodox dinner party will forever change their lives. The result is a unique farce-turned-drama, featuring chaotic comedy as only Neil Simon could write it!

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, directed by Brian Heinrich with Angie Mason, and starring Cliff Belt, Karen Holmes, Jessie Jones, Jeffrey Marcum, Jane Rittenhouse and Nic Randolph Sigman, "The Dinner Party" will run June 12-14, 2015 at The Women's Club in Hagerstown.

The Friday and Saturday shows start at 8:00 p.m., while the Sunday matinee curtain rises at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $10 if purchased in advance at www.potomacplaymakers.org or by calling 240-382-7269. Tickets may also be purchased at the door for $12.

HWC's 35th Anniversary Celebration: Call for Art

Hospice of Washington County, Inc. (HWC), in partnership with and support from The Washington County Arts Council (WCAC) and The Valley Art Association, is pleased to invite visual artists, including local artists of Western Maryland and the surrounding area, to answer a "Call to Artists" for the opportunity to create a poster to be used in celebrating Hospice of Washington County's 35 years of service to the community. All submissions are subject to the guidelines set forth herein, and the "Call to Artists" is open to submission by any and all interested artists.

The theme for this contest is, "Transformation," (a change in form, appearance, nature or character). Interested artists are encouraged to visit Hospice of Washington County's website at www.hospiceofwc.org. HWC's 35th Anniversary Celebration will include many events throughout 2015. One selected original work of art will be commissioned by HWC, and will be used to create posters and promotional materials.
