The Washington County Arts Council, Inc. one of Maryland's 24 arts councils, has been a partner in the Hagerstown-Washington County Community since it was formed in 1967 and has maintained a downtown presence supporting the A & E District.

The WCAC Gallery hosts monthly exhibits and opening receptions for local artists in addition to maintaining The Gallery Shop which has become a retail destination location in the downtown (heart) of the City of Hagerstown. "The Gallery Shop" has come to life to provide a venue for the show and sale of unique jewelry, pottery, painting, textiles, books, blown & fused glass, wood art and photography produced by local artists. Each piece of art for sale tells a one of a kind story of the talent and skill of our regional artists. WCAC currently exhibits the work of more than 125 local artists!

The Washington County Arts Council provides support for many Hagerstown-Washington County art organizations through its Community Arts Development grants (CAD) and awards.

WCAC is a partner with the art organizations of Washington County supporting local artists, downtown, education initiatives, music, dance, etc. and promoting greater arts, education, & entertainment activities.

The Washington County Arts Council, Inc. is funded by a grant from the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC), an agency of the Department of Business & Economic Development. Additional support is provided by the Washington County Commissioners, the City of Hagerstown, membership, sponsorships, foundations and fundraising.

Outbreak! The Medical History of Washington County

On Saturday, October 24th, 2015, the Washington County Historical Society will be presenting a new exhibit on the medical history of the area. The exhibit, entitled "Outbreak!" will explore the stories of doctors, nurses, dentists, pharmacists and other medical practitioners throughout the history of the county. Washington County saw more than its fair share of pioneers in the healthcare industry, and their advances are recalled and celebrated in this new exhibit. Artifacts on display include Civil War surgery kits, tools from local doctors and dentists, and a display of bottles and remedies from local pharmacies.

An opening reception will be held from 1 - 3 p.m. on October 24th. Light refreshments will be served. There will be a small admission fee of $5 for non-members.

The exhibit will run until December 31st, 2015. For more information on museum hours and admission fees, please call 301-797-8782 or visit www.washcomdhistoricalsociety.org.

PROMOTING MUSICAL EXCELLENCE

Two Rivers Chamber Orchestra Concert

Trinity Episcopal Church, W. German Street, Shepherdstown, WV

11/07/2015--Start Time: 7:30pm--End Time: 9:00pm

Shepherdstown WV's Friends of Music organization will launch its 2015-2016 performance season with a concert by the Two Rivers Chamber Orchestra on Saturday, November 7. The concert will be held at Shepherdstown's Trinity Episcopal Church at 7:30 p.m. The Orchestra's Music Director, Jed Gaylin, will conduct. This will be the first time the Orchestra has performed at the Church. Dr. Gaylin says a main reason for choosing the Church was its superb acoustics. In keeping with this move to a new venue, the concert will be entitled "Brilliant Beginnings." Three works will be featured: * "Last Round," a piece for double string quartet and bass by Argentine composer Osvaldo Golijov, one of the most sought after modern composers; * Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto in E Minor, Op. 64, with violinist Jorge Àvila; * Beethoven's Symphony No.1 in C Major, Op. 21. Admission will be free for Friends of Music members. The ticket price for others will be $25 per person. Tickets and Friends' memberships can be purchased on the Friends' website at www.friendswv.org or by mail (FOM, PO Box 220, Shepherdstown, WV 25443) or, if space is available, at the church the evening of the performance. Visa and Master Card will be accepted. In addition to on-street parking in the vicinity of the church, free parking will be available at the Bavarian Inn parking lot, with free shuttle bus service to and from the concert.
