Engine Room Art Space

Engine Room Art Space, supported by The Studios on NoPo resident artists and a program of Main Street Hagerstown presented by the City of Hagerstown Department of Community and Economic Development, is an art gallery that opened in the heart of downtown Hagerstown June 2015.

Engine Room Art Space hopes to be recognized in the community as a positive space for people to make connections, get inspired, learn and gain experience. We welcome local emerging artists to showcase art that presents challenging ideas or processes; to serve as a starting point for artists of outstanding talent and quality.

The gallery is currently accepting proposals for solo or group exhibitions or curatorial projects with no fee for submission. Find out more about upcoming events and opportunities by liking Engine Room Art Space on Facebook at www.facebook.com/engineeroomart . Or contact Emily Jones at (304) 940-0456 or ejones@hagerstownmd.org.

Washington County Playhouse Dinner Theater and Children's Theater

On July 23, 2015 for ONE NIGHT ONLY, The Washington County Playhouse Dinner Theater and

Children's Theater will welcome Hollywood actor Michael-Anthony Nozzi to

The Playhouse stage in Jay Presson Allen's TRU.

Winner! 1990 Drama Desk Award for Outstanding One-Person Show. Adapted from the words and works of Truman Capote, Tru takes place in the writer's New York City apartment during the week before Christmas 1975. An excerpt from Capote's infamous novel Answered Prayers has recently been published in Esquire and the author's friends, recognizing the characters as thinly veiled versions of themselves, have turned their back on the man they once considered a close confidant. Alone and hurting, Capote soothes himself with pills, alcohol, and chocolate truffles while musing about his checkered life and career.

Tickets on sale now at $39.00 each (includes salad bar, hot buffet and dessert. Cash bar available). TRU contains adult language.

TRU will be performed at The Washington County Playhouse Dinner Theater and Children's Theater on Thursday, July 23rd. Doors open at 6:30 pm. The theater is located at 44 North Potomac Street, Rear Entrance, Hagerstown, MD 21740. For tickets call 301-739-7469.

HWC's 35th Anniversary Celebration: Call for Art

DEADLINE: September 1, 2015 @ NOON

Washington County Arts Council

Contact: Chris Brewer

34 S. Potomac Street

Hagerstown, Maryland 21740

(301) 791-3132

www.washingtoncountyarts.com * gallerymanager@washingtoncountyarts.com

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra is partnering with Maryland Talent Education Center to provide group violin lessons for beginning students (grades 1-3). The program will be taught in part by Principal Violist, Phyllis Freeman. Parents will be required to attend classes and occasionally participate with their child. Violin rentals will be provided by Potter Violin Company for $20 per month.

Tuition is $175 for the Fall semester, which will include 12 weeks of 45 minute classes from September to December. Students in this string program will utilize the ViolinPractice Method to help students with home practicing.

About the Instructor

Phyllis Freeman has been principal viola of the Maryland Symphony since 2000. In addition, she is the director of the Maryland Talent Education Center, which has locations in Frederick and Mt. Airy MD. The school provides violin, viola and cello instruction to 70-80 students annually. You can find more information about the school at www.MarylandTalent.com.

About ViolinPractice.com

ViolinPractice.com is a holistic, web based violin method that integrates the development of technique and musicianship through the use of video and supporting materials. The site was created by Phyllis Freeman and Rebecca Henry and is designed to help students develop effective, mindful, and creative practice habits that will lead to independence and a lifelong love of music.

Scholarships may be available.

Introductory Meeting: Saturday, September 12th, 9:00am

Where: John Wesley United Methodist Church
129 North Potomac Street

World War II on the Home Front Exhibit to Open

Washington County's response to the war effort during World War II reflected much of the national spirit of the day, but may have been more intense than in some communities because of the deep impact of having Fairchild Aircraft in our midst. A new exhibit about the local commitment to the war effort entitled "If We Can't Buy It, We Will Grow It" opens Saturday, July 18th at the Miller House Museum, 135 W. Washington St., Hagerstown with many artifacts from the permanent collection of the Washington County Historical Society.

The opening reception will be held from 1 to 3 p.m., and is open to the public.

The exhibit will be open during regular hours of the Miller House Museum, Wednesday through Saturday, from 1 to 4 p.m. It is recommended that visitors call 301-797-8782 before coming to make sure that staff or volunteers are available to conduct tours.

Group tours can be arranged by appointment.

Admission prices are: $8.00 for adults, $5.00 for seniors and students.

Visit www.washcomdhistoricalsociety.org.
