The Tony Award winning musical CABARET closes the 2015 season at The Washington County Playhouse Dinner Theater and Children's Theater.

The Washington County Museum of Fine Arts will present Steinway Artist Robin Spielberg performing Another Time, Another Place for the annual Perry/Brandenburg Recital on Sunday, September 27, 2015 at 2:30 p.m. This concert is sponsored each year by Cinda and Spence Perry in memory of their mothers Mary Gaylor Brandenburg and Inez Hottsford Perry. The Perrys noted "we felt that the memory of these two strong, talented and generous women could best be perpetuated by using a portion of their resources to continue their tradition of sharing music with others for years to come. It is our way of saying thank you to both of them for the opportunity to hear, to learn and to love music from our earliest years." A reception, hosted by members of the Museum's volunteer organization, the Singer Society, will be held following the concert. General admission for the concert is $10.00 and members and children are Free.

Home Free: Don't It Feel Good Tour

Tuesday, September 29, 2015 * 7:30pm

When country vocal band Home Free was crowned champion of NBC's The Sing-Off, their victory was by no means the beginnings of a career for the five country stars from Minnesota... rather it was a satisfying culmination of nearly a decade of hard work and commitment to a vocal craft growing in popularity. They have become known for their high-energy performances, peppered with quick-witted humor that meshes Nashville standards with pop hits dipped in country flavor. Since their Sing-Off win, Home Free has released two albums (Crazy Life and Full Of Cheer), selling more than 150,000 copies; they've embarked on two major national tours, selling more than 100,000 tickets in North America; they've released more than 20 music videos, amassing more than 35-million YouTube views. They continue to build a national audience as they bring their Don't It Feel Good Tour to town in support of their third major release on Columbia Records out in Fall 2015.

VIP package:

- Pre-show Q&A, photograph, and autograph sessions with the band (begins 2.5 hours prior to show time)
- Pre-show crowd-free merchandise shopping
- A signed copy of the new Home Free album
- Exclusive show laminate
- Exclusive show poster

HCC to offer family and youth programming

(Hagerstown, Md.)- The Continuing Education Division at Hagerstown Community College is offering several personal enrichment programs this fall for youth/teens and families.

Engine Room Art Space, a recently opened art gallery in downtown Hagerstown, is announcing its fifth monthly exhibit set to open October 9th. "Edge of Appalachia" features three artists from different areas, all part of the large region called Appalachia, of which Hagerstown happens to be right on the edge. Collage artist Ashley Hoffman, painter Mindy Sizemore and blacksmith Lucas Warner represent a new generation of Appalachian visual artists determined to control their own voices, to celebrate the land that formed their identity and raise awareness to issues that affect under-served Appalachia.

"Ferns and Fiddleheads" by Lucas Warner

The reception for "Edge of Appalachia" will occur at the gallery Friday, October 9th from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. The artists will be present for discussion of their artwork and refreshments will be served.

Keep up with Engine Room's happenings by liking us on Facebook, following our Instagram, or visiting our website. Any questions can be sent to the gallery coordinator at ejones@hagerstownmd.org or (240) 520 - 1407.

PROMOTING MUSICAL EXCELLENCE

Two Rivers Chamber Orchestra Concert

Trinity Episcopal Church, W. German Street, Shepherdstown, WV

11/07/2015--Start Time: 7:30pm--End Time: 9:00pm

Shepherdstown WV's Friends of Music organization will launch its 2015-2016 performance season with a concert by the Two Rivers Chamber Orchestra on Saturday, November 7. The concert will be held at Shepherdstown's Trinity Episcopal Church at 7:30 p.m. The Orchestra's Music Director, Jed Gaylin, will conduct. This will be the first time the Orchestra has performed at the Church. Dr. Gaylin says a main reason for choosing the Church was its superb acoustics. In keeping with this move to a new venue, the concert will be entitled "Brilliant Beginnings." Three works will be featured: * "Last Round," a piece for double string quartet and bass by Argentine composer Osvaldo Golijov, one of the most sought after modern composers; * Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto in E Minor, Op. 64, with violinist Jorge Àvila; * Beethoven's Symphony No.1 in C Major, Op. 21. Admission will be free for Friends of Music members. The ticket price for others will be $25 per person. Tickets and Friends' memberships can be purchased on the Friends' website at www.friendswv.org or by mail (FOM, PO Box 220, Shepherdstown, WV 25443) or, if space is available, at the church the evening of the performance. Visa and Master Card will be accepted. In addition to on-street parking in the vicinity of the church, free parking will be available at the Bavarian Inn parking lot, with free shuttle bus service to and from the concert.

Fee: $25
