"Washington County in the Civil War" tells stories of events and people in Washington County during the Civil War, and is woven around nearly 200 images of places and people in the County. Rather than recycle the standard images that have been published frequently in the past, the author sought out rare images of people and places, from Sideling Hill to South Mountain, from the Mason/Dixon to the Potomac, many of which are published here for the first time.

GiftsInnBoonsboro

16 N Main Street, Boonsboro, Maryland

Friday, April 15, 2016 at 6 PM - 8 PM

Bruce Wilder, a photographer who works in both film and digital, picked up his first camera at the age of twelve. Within a decade, he began processing his own negatives and prints. While black and white photography launched his passion, the digital medium expanded his vision, allowing him to produce art images in color.

Now merging technology and art, Mr. Wilder has explored HDR. High Dynamic Range imagery enables him to create photographs with a greater dynamic range by combining several images of different exposures.

Mr. Wilder believes the artist's choice defines his potential. He embraces the diversity of photographic art, its endless possibilities whether dramatic black and white, dreamy monochrome, brilliant color or visions enhanced with creative digital manipulation.
