TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Submit your original artwork depicting an animal as the subject. An animal must take visual precedence in the composition. This year we are allowing fantasy animals. An animal must be a recognizable component, i.e., the "Pegasus" is a winged horse. The quality of the work will take precedence over the subject.

Any original representational two dimensional work in oil, pastel acrylic, watercolor, ink, pencil, or scratch board, and wall-mounted sculpture relief or in the round under 40 lbs will be considered. No photography, prints, or digital art will be accepted.
Framed dimensions for each entry must not exceed 28 x 34 inches. Work must not infringe on any copyright.

Acceptance notification - March 25th.
Artists will be notified by email of their accepted work. Notification by mail only if artist includes a self-addressed stamped postcard with entry.
Work must be HAND DELIVERED to the Schuler School any time after notification of acceptance. Work must be READY TO HANG and labeled with name, title, and price.

ALL WORKS MUST BE FOR SALE.
Delivery Deadline - March 30 2019, by 1pm or by appointment.
Pick up deadline – April 13 2019

Jerome Atherholt "Buster," Oil

JUDGE
Jerome Atherholt

Jerome Atherholt graduated from the Schuler School of Fine Art in 1988. After completing his post graduate year, he taught drawing, painting and still life at Schuler for 11 years. He has exhibited his work at several galleries and in exhibitions in the Baltimore area. In 1994, Jerome began his career in digital art when he joined MicroProse Games as an artist and animator. He has worked as a Senior Artist at Firaxis Games in Sparks, Maryland for the past 22 years. His credits include Sid Meier's Civilization series, Pirates!, and Alpha Centauri, among many others. Jerome maintains an art studio in his home and looks forward to returning to painting full time when he retires in several years.
